

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1707

Introduced by Assembly Member Conway

February 1, 2010

An act to amend Section 3075.1 of the Labor Code, relating to employment.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1707, as introduced, Conway. Employment: apprentice training. Existing law makes it the public policy of the state to promote apprenticeship as a form of on-the-job training when such training is cost effective.

This bill would make nonsubstantive changes to this provision.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 3075.1 of the Labor Code is amended to
2 read:
3 3075.1. It is the public policy of this state to encourage the 4 utilization of apprenticeship as a form of on-the-job training, when
5 such training is ~~cost-effective~~ cost effective in developing skills
6 needed to perform public services. State and local public agencies
7 shall make a diligent effort to establish apprenticeship programs
8 for apprenticeable occupations in their respective work forces. In 9 furtherance of this policy, public agencies shall take into
10 consideration (a) the extent to which a continuous supply of trained
11 personnel is readily available to public agencies to meet their skill

1 requirements in the various occupations which are determined to
2 be apprenticeable; and (b) the application of established programs
3 in the private sector, where appropriate. Public sector
4 apprenticeship programs should be fully compatible with 5 affirmative action goals for the participation of minorities and 6 women in apprenticeship programs.
